

Orlando Arts Magazine

NOVEMBER/DECEMBER 2018
$3.95

The Official Publication of

United Arts

OF CENTRAL FLORIDA

Nonprofit Holder
2450 Maitland Center Pkwy, Suite 201
Maitland, FL 32751-4140

COURTESY, JIFA

Jeanine Taylor Folk Art

On Aug. 18, Jeanine Taylor Folk Art welcomed a team of interior designers for a gallery take-over, Folk Art Meets Design. Amber Clore, Laurel Carter and Mickey Searcy were invited to design a vignette around a piece of folk art from Taylor's gallery. Shown, from left, are: Laurel Carter, Jeanine Taylor and Amber Clore.

Mills Gallery

On Sept. 1, Mills Gallery hosted the opening of Jacoub Reyes' pop-up show Beyond Good & Evil, curated by Kyle Eagle. The evening included a tour and Q&A with the artist. Shown, from left, are: Boris Douglas Garbe, Artist Jacoub Reyes, Guest Curator Kyle Eagle and Terry Olson.

COURTESY MILLS GALLERY

Orlando Science Center

City of Orlando Mayor Buddy Dyer was a keynote speaker at Orlando Science Center's (OSC) Medallion Society reception and program on Sept. 25. The event celebrated Dr. Phillips Charities for its generous and lasting impact on the community, especially its longtime support of OSC and Best Buddies. To date, Dr. Phillips Charities has contributed nearly $4 million to OSC and is a member of its Medallion Society, which honors donors who have contributed $1 million or more to support OSC's mission to inspire science learning for life. Shown, from left, are: Michael Wheeler and Rob Strader of Best Buddies, Mayor Dyer, Ken Robinson of Dr. Phillips Charities, JoAnn Newman of Orlando Science Center, and Elizabeth Safrit, Miss United States 2014, who served as the event's emcee. OAM

COURTESY OSC

Help us keep an Eye on Society! Share your art/cultural organization's event group photos with our readers. To be included in OAM's January/February 2019 issue, please be sure to email your high-resolution images along with complete event and image caption information to Cindy@UnitedArts.cc no later than Dec. 1.